

The Honorable Kymberly K. Evanson

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

BRIAN AXEL PEDRAZA CISNEROS, and
JOSE RODOLFO AGUILAR CORTES,

Defendants.

NO. CR24-081 KKE

ORDER GRANTING STIPULATED
MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter comes before the Court on the parties' stipulated motion for entry of a discovery protective order. Dkt. No. 29. Having considered the motion, and being fully advised in this matter, the Court GRANTS the motion (Dkt. No. 29) and hereby enters the following PROTECTIVE ORDER:

1. Protected Material. For purposes of this Order, "Protected Materials" shall include sensitive materials that disclose personal identifying information ("PII")<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> "PII" includes, but is not necessarily limited to, the information identified in Fed. R. Crim. P. 49.1(a) and includes full names, dates of birth, Social Security numbers (or other identification information), financial account information (including account numbers), tax information, driver's license numbers, addresses, telephone numbers,

1 obtained during the investigation, including but not limited to personal information about 2 witnesses, victims, and third parties, and other sensitive information obtained during the 3 investigation (collectively, the “Protected Material”). Any produced Grand Jury 4 transcripts will be considered Protected Material without further designation by the 5 government. Other information believed by the government to be Protected Material will 6 be so designated by the government. Said material may include, but is not limited to,
7 Giglio impeachment materials.

8       2. Production of Protected Material to the Defense. The United States will 9 make available copies of the Protected Materials, including those filed under seal, to 10 defense counsel to comply with the government’s discovery obligations. Possession of 11 copies of the Protected Materials is limited to attorneys of record and investigators, 12 paralegals, law clerks, experts, and assistants for the attorneys of record (hereinafter 13 collectively referred to as “members of the defense team”). Further, the attorneys of 14 record are required, prior to disseminating any copies of the Protected Materials to 15 members of the defense team, to provide a copy of this Protective Order to members of 16 the defense team and obtain their agreement to be bound by the terms and conditions of 17 this Protective Order.

18       3. Review of Protected Material by a Defendant. The attorneys of record
19 and members of a Defendant’s defense team may share and review the Protected Material
20 with a Defendant. When a Defendant resides at the Federal Detention Center (FDC),
21 they will be permitted to review the Protected Material, consistent with the regulations
22 established by the BOP for such material, with or without his counsel in a controlled 23 environment at the FDC, but will be prohibited from printing out, copying, or 24 disseminating the material. If a Defendant is on pretrial release, they will be permitted to

26 _____
27 locations of residences or employment, medical records, school records, juvenile criminal records, and other 28 confidential information. The government has endeavored to redact PII as appropriate, but the parties acknowledge and agree that this will not always be possible, and that in some instances un-redacted PII may be necessary to the defense.

1 review the Protected Material at the office of his counsel, or via a video conference call,
2 but will be prohibited from printing out, copying, or disseminating the material.

3       4.     Limits on Dissemination of Protected Materials. The attorneys of record
4 and members of the defense team acknowledge that providing copies of the Protected 5 Material to a Defendant and other persons is prohibited and agree not to duplicate or 6 provide copies of the Protected Material to Defendant and other persons. This order does 7 not limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of 8 Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to members of the United States
9 Attorney's Office, federal law enforcement agencies, witnesses, and the Court. Nor does 10 this order limit employees of the United States Attorney's Office for the Western District 11 of Washington from disclosing the Protected Material to defense counsel as necessary to 12 comply with the government's discovery obligations.

13       5.     Future Production of Additional Protected Materials. Additional types
14 of discovery items may be deemed by the parties to constitute Protected Material upon 15 agreement, or (if no agreement can be reached) by further order of the Court.

16       6.     No Waiver. Nothing in this order should be construed as imposing any 17 substantive discovery obligations on the government that are different from those 18 imposed by case law and Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The 19 failure to designate any materials as provided in paragraph 2 shall not constitute a waiver
20 of a party's assertion that the materials are covered by this Protective Order.

21       7.     Use of Protected Material in Court. Any Protected Material that is filed
22 with the Court in connection with pre-trial motions, trial, or other matter before this 23 Court, shall be filed under seal and shall remain sealed until otherwise ordered by this 24 Court. This does not entitle either party to seal their filings as a matter of course. The 25 parties are required to comply in all respects with the relevant local and federal rules of 26 criminal procedure pertaining to the sealing of court documents.

27       8.     Non-Termination. The provisions of this Order shall not terminate at the 28 conclusion of this prosecution. Furthermore, at the close of this case, defense counsel

1 shall return the Protected Material, including all copies of the Protected Material, to the 2 office of the United States Attorney, or otherwise certify that the material has been 3 destroyed.

4       9.     Violation of Order. Any person who willfully violates this order may be 5 held in contempt of court and may be subject to monetary or other sanctions as deemed 6 appropriate by this Court.

7       10.    Modification of Order. Nothing in this Protective Order shall prevent any 8 party from seeking modification of this Order or from objecting to discovery that it
9 believes to be otherwise improper. The parties agree that in the event that compliance
10 with this Order makes it difficult for defense counsel to adhere to their Sixth Amendment
11 obligations, or otherwise imposes an unworkable burden on counsel, defense counsel
12 shall bring any concerns about the terms of the Order to the attention of the government.
13 The parties shall then meet and confer with the intention of finding a mutually acceptable 14 solution. In the event that the parties cannot reach such a solution, defense counsel shall 15 have the right to bring any concerns about the scope or terms of the Order to the attention
16 of the Court by way of a motion.

17       11.    Agreement to Provide Copies of Protected Material to Defendant. Upon 18 agreement of counsel for the government, members of a defense team may provide copies
19 of specific Protected Material, or redacted versions of such material, to a 20 Defendant. When seeking the government's agreement to give such a copy to a 21 Defendant, members of the defense team will identify with reasonable particularity, 22 including (where available) the specific bates numbered pages and or recording 23 descriptions, the specific material defense counsel proposes to give to a Defendant.
24 Unless expressly stated otherwise by the government, copies of Protected Material to be 25 provided to a Defendant will continue to be Protected Material subject to all of the 26 protections of the Court's Order, with the sole exception that a copy can be given only to 27 a Defendant (and not shared with anyone else outside the defense team). If counsel for 28 the government and counsel for a Defendant cannot reach agreement on whether

1 particular portions of the Protected Material or redacted versions of Protected
2 Material should be given to a Defendant under these conditions, defense counsel may 3 raise the issue with the Court by way of a motion.

4 12. No Ruling on Discoverability or Admissibility. This Protective Order
5 does not constitute a ruling on the question of whether any particular material is properly
6 discoverable or admissible and does not constitute any ruling on any potential objection
7 to the discoverability of any material.

8 13. No Ruling on Timing of Production. This Protective Order does not 9 require the government to provide particular discovery at a time or in a fashion 10 inconsistent with applicable law.

11 The Clerk of the Court is directed to provide a filed copy of this Protective Order 12 to all counsel of record.
